

The German composer, Peter Kreuder (1905-81) is famous above all for the music he wrote for German music in the 30s. With great respect for the original compositions, Jenny Evans has reworded a number of them in English and has created a modern Kreuder Song Book: waltzes have become bossa novas, marches sambas and fox-trots swingers.