

Don't Hurt Me, Now

now, that I'm naked
and stripped bare
and showing all my soul
don't hurt me, now
now, that my breast's
been opened
Like a surgeon's scalpel does

For so long I built a wall round my hearts
so long I tried to fend off love's darts

Don't hurt me, now
now that I'm unsheltered from the storm please don't hurt me now
