

Underdog

You say you're always on the side of people who've no place to hide of people who can't win but lose but how about me?
I've got the blues
I'm your underdog
and I don't know how to get up again
I'm your underdog
and though I'm hurt and still filled with pain I am just your underdog how can I face that I have no chance
I'm your underdog

You say you feel for those who're hurt for those who are in the dirt but how about the ones who feel like me whose love is oh so real?
I'm your underdog
and I'm grovelling down on my knees
I'm your underdog
you have to help me, help me please I'm your underdog
how come you can't see that I'm suffering pitifully I'm your underdog
